

OUR MAY MEETING/PICNIC- A Cookout, Casting Practice Get Together!

WHEN: Saturday May 6, 2017 11:00 am to 3pm

WHERE: Fox Bluff Conservation Area, Cary, Illinois

DIRECTIONS- PLEASE NOTE THE DIRECTIONS TO THE PAVILION WERE INCORRECT IN THE NEWSLETTER. PLEASE FOLLOW THESE DIRECTIONS:

From Algonquin, drive north on Main street ( old RT. 31) Do not take the new road that by passes Algonquin, drive through the middle of town to the top of the hill and turn right on Cary-Algonquin road. Proceed till you are able to see Cold Springs Road. The Pavilion and picnic area is off of Cold Springs road, not Fox Trails north. Please see the link below.

COST- There is no cost, since we are asking those attending to bring a dish.

ACTIVITIES- There will be plenty of open space to practice casting. So bring your rods and enjoy some time networking with fellow chapter member anglers. Share tips and ideas.

This will be a social outing and people will have the opportunity to see the Fox Bluff Restoration project. The work that Jerry Sapp and the conservation team have done is impressive and is worth seeing for yourselves. We will have added the first batch of brook trout from one of the 2 Trout in the Classroom programs the day before.

FOOD-- THIS IS A POTLUCK PICNIC, SO WE HAVE SET UP THE FOLLOWING INSTRUCTIONS FOR PEOPLE ATTENDING: You will be seeing an evite and eblast soon. PLEASE RSVP BY May 2, 2017 so we have time to purchase enough food for our grilling event.

1. Our chapter is providing the grilled meats, buns and condiments. Beverages will also be available.
2. POT LUCK INSTRUCTIONS: For those attending WITH THE LAST NAME STARTING WITH LETTERS
  - A THROUGH M : PLEASE BRING A SIDE DISH OR SALAD
  - N THROUGH Z- PLEASE BRING A DESSERT

I am looking forward to see many of you there! Please email Meg (prez@leewulfftu.org) if you have other questions.

Thanks! Meg
