

Lee Wulff Trout Unlimited 2023 Outings

Early Spring Outing Westby/Viroqua, WI April 27-30

Our first outing of 2023 will be to the Viroqua/Westby area of the Driftless. The group plans to stay at Logan Mill Lodge, so advance reservations and prepayment of housing costs will be required; more information to follow. Join us to fish streams including the Timber Coulee, Bad Axe River, West Fork of the Kickapoo, Billings Creek, Bohemian Valley Creek and many more. Evenings will be spent swapping fish stories at the Lodge and sampling the local dinner cuisine.

Contact the Outings Coordinator, Ralph Lessor (r_lessor@msn.com) if you will be attending.

Lee Wulff Chapter of Trout Unlimited

Spring Outing Fennimore, WI May 18-21

Streams in the southern part of Wisconsin's Driftless area include the Big Green River, Blue River (and its various tributary creeks) and a variety of others. We will be reserving a block of rooms at Napps Motel in Fennimore for chapter members, and plans include the traditional Thursday evening bratwurst cookout at the motel.

Contact the Outings Coordinator, Ralph Lessor (r_lessor@msn.com) if you will be attending.

Summer Outing

(Late June/early July, location and dates TBD)

Additional information and dates to follow. This outing may include a work day building stiles for angler access or other conservation-related activities.

LWTU Fall Outing Westby/Viroqua, WI September 8-11

A return to Logan Mill Lodge and the streams in the Viroqua/Westby/Ontario region of the Driftless. Hopper and terrestrial flies work best in the late summer and early fall in the Driftless. More information to follow.
